

ALPHA CHI membership is the highest academic honor awarded by Belmont University. Its requirements are to be in the top 10 percent academically of all students and to be of junior or senior class rank. Alpha Chi members are nominated by the faculty and must have outstanding moral character and display leadership, integrity and service. Belmont University is the Eta Chapter of Alpha Chi in Region III. Alpha Chi chapters can be found at more than 300 colleges and universities in 45 states. The name of Alpha Chi derives from the initial letters of the Greek words meaning TRUTH and CHARACTER.
